

Refining Your Intuitive Skills

a highly experiential workshop

that will deepen your skills, abilities, and confidence...

(an advanced course, designed specifically for those already using their intuition)

- Engage and expand your intuition for daily practical benefit - personally and professionally
- Strengthen your connection with spirit guides and learn to recognize external sources
- Practical Tips for dealing with difficult information
- Overcome obstacles to intuitive reception

Enjoy learning from two seasoned instructors who share decades of practical experience and a passion for teaching. This workshop incorporates transformational breathing, a survey of meditation, and lots of individual coaching. This is going to be active, fun, engaged learning... a rare opportunity, not to be missed!

Saturday
&
Sunday

Mar 13th - 14th

Somers Point,
New Jersey

$260 if paid in full by Friday, February 28th and $300 thereafter.

For more info and to register call:

Ed at 609-601-9272

or

Jacquelyne at 208-267-1652

Jacquelyne Ellis has been a professional intuitive for fifteen years, serving as a teacher, spiritual coach, and business consultant to clients worldwide. She leads experiential workshops that support people in developing their intuitive skills, and she works with individuals in private sessions, relaying a wealth of information that is accurate, helpful and practical. For more information, please visit www.sacreddialogues.net.

Ed Smith has been a disciplined spiritual student since he was a teenager. He has been a practicing bodyworker since 1987, specializing in NeuroMuscular Therapy, Energywork, and Transformational Breathing. Ed has been teaching meditation, yoga and massage for over twenty years. He and his wife Kathy own and operate The Seashore Healing Arts Center in Somers Point, New Jersey.